A six-bedroom mega-mansion has been listed for sale for £25 million in one of London's most exclusive squares.

Set in Belgravia's prestigious Chester Square, named England and Wales' fifth most expensive street last year, the property spans a total of 7100 sq ft and is a veritable trophy cabinet comprising Italian marble, bespoke joinery, leather finishes and silk wallpapers.

Behind the imposing stucco-fronted Georgian façade typical of other homes in the square, the mansion actually connects the original townhouse with the four-storey mews behind it.

It's not first of its kind, but it is one of the largest - and it's been 18 months in the making.
